

Presented by the Camden County Board of Commissioners and Offered Through the Camden County Office of Mental Health & Addiction

EMPOWERING COMMUNITIES:

Trainings for Awareness,
Prevention & Response

The Camden County Office of Mental Health & Addiction (OMHA) provides FREE prevention-focused trainings to increase awareness, reduce risk, and support healthier communities.

ADULT & YOUTH TRAINING TOPICS:

- Substance Use Awareness
- Overdose Prevention & Naloxone
- Vaping, Cannabis, and Alcohol Education
- Youth Life Skills & Prevention
- Healthy Relationships & Conflict

Available for schools, community groups,
and organizations in Camden County

PARTICIPANTS WILL LEARN

- How to recognize and respond to an overdose
- Current substance use trends and risks
- Strategies to support youth and healthy choices
- Tools to improve safety and well-being
- Connection to local resources

CALL TO ACTION

Scan QR Code to Request a Training or Learn
More about training topics & details!

Questions: contact Patty DiRenzo at patty.direnzo@camdencounty.com.

FUNDED IN PART BY THE NJ DEPARTMENT OF HUMAN SERVICES, DIVISION OF MENTAL HEALTH AND ADDICTION. FACILITATED BY CAMDEN COUNTY COUNCIL ON ALCOHOLISM & DRUG ABUSE.

Camden County Council
On Alcoholism & Drug Abuse, Inc.

CAMDENCOUNTY.COM